ORDER

The petition for rehearing en banc is granted, and the panel's opinion and judgment are vacated.

The court invites the parties to file supplemental briefs addressing this question, in addition to any others that the parties deem appropriate:

Whether a donor to an organization that, the donor knows, practices terrorism, can be liable under 18 U.S.C. §2333(a) in the absence of proof that the donor intended to advance the violent component of the recipient's activities.

Appellants' briefs must be received by the clerk of court by the close of business on July 25, 2008. Appellees' responsive briefs must be received by the clerk by August 22, 2008.

Briefs of amici curiae supporting the appellants must be received no later than August 1, 2008, and amicus briefs supporting the appellees are due at the same time as appellees' responsive briefs.

The court invites the United States to file a brief as amicus curiae. This brief is due by August 22, 2008, no matter which side it supports. If the United States files a brief, the parties will have until September 3, 2008, to file short memoranda responding to that brief. September 3 is also the final date for appellants' reply briefs.

The case will be set for reargument promptly after all supplemental briefs have been received.
