Mujahideen Shura Council in Iraq Blesses the Shootings in Amman, Jordan

A umbrella-insurgency group, the Mujahideen Shura Council in Iraq, issued a statement today, Tuesday, September 5, 2006, blessing the shooting in Amman, Jordan yesterday, which killed a British tourist and injured five others. The message praises this attack that targeted an “unblessed gathering of Jews and Christians who roamed and proceeded freely in the countries of Islam under the protection of the tyrants and their supporters”.

Although the group does not explicitly claim responsibility for the shooting, they bless it as if it were their own, encouraging Muslim youth to treat the attacker as a model for emulation.

The Mujahideen Shura Council is composed of eight insurgency groups in Iraq: al-Qaeda in Iraq, Victorious Army Group, the Army of al-Sunnah Wal Jama’a, Jama’a al-Murabiteen, Ansar al-Tawhid Brigades, Islamic Jihad Brigades, the Strangers Brigades, and the Horrors Brigades, collaborating to meet the “unbelievers gathering with different sides” and defend Islam.

Following is a translation of the message:

A Statement from the Mujahideen Shura Council in Iraq Regarding the Latest Events in Amman

In the Name of Allah, the most Gracious and Merciful

The Grace is to Allah, the Lord of the Two Worlds; the good consequences for the believers, and assault is only on the oppressors. Peace and prayers upon the Imam of Mujahideen, our Prophet Muhammad, his family and his companions:

The Glory is to Allah who placed in this Ummah [Nation] men who do not accept the oppression. The sacred wombs of Muslim women continue to give birth to heroes after heroes; the wombs that delivered Khalid, Sa’ad, al-Muthanna, and also delivered heroes such as Khalid al-Islambuli, Abdullah Azzam, Sheikh Usama [bin Laden], Commander Khattab, and others from the heroes of Islam. Women in this Ummah continue to give birth to heroes.

What took place a few days ago in Amman signifies where a lion of the lions of Islam attacked an unblessed gathering of Jews and Christians who roamed and proceeded freely in the countries of Islam under the protection of the tyrants and their supporters. So he shot among them, and killed and injured. We bless that lion’s action and we tell him: hopefully your right arm will never become paralyzed, and may Allah accept your deed. We also invite the youths of the Ummah everywhere to take look at this hero lion as a model. The enemies of Allah will never have safety in the countries of Islam, and there is no legitimacy to the treaties or promises with Arab tyrants.

O Allah please guide the youth of Islam everywhere to operate by Your Faith and by the jihad for Your Cause.

O Allah please take care of the Jews and the Christians because they do not fear You.

O Allah please get the Arab tyrants.

O Allah please get the non-Arab [foreign] tyrants.

Glory is to Allah, and to His Messenger, and to the believers, but the hypocrites know not. [al-Munafiqun 63:8]
