~~(S)~~ Full Field Investigation Instituted: 01/01/2004

Details: ~~(S)~~ For information of receiving offices, a meeting took place on Thursday, February 5, 2004 with FBI personnel and attorneys for the Deputy Attorney General. Attending the meeting were the Assistant Director, Counterterrorism, Section Chief, ITOS II, FBI Deputy General Counsel and the Director's Chief of Staff. The Deputy Attorney General's attorneys raised a concern regarding the dissemination of information from the interviews of High Value Detainee - 1 (HVD-1). The Office of the Deputy Attorney General does not want information disseminated until the Deputy Attorney General has an opportunity to review the matter.

Re: ~~(S)~~ 315E-HQ-1448534, 02/06/2004

(U)

~~(S)~~ This EC advises that until further notice, all disseminations regarding FBI interviews of HVD-1 must receive FBIHQ approval. The approval authority will remain with the substantive unit (ISLOU), with Office of General Counsel consultation.

(U) ~~(S)~~ The Office of the Deputy Attorney General raised no objections to the FBI plan to not issue "Miranda" warnings, videotape interviews and identify interviewing agents solely as U.S. Government agents.
